

City of Batavia, NY - Director of Public Works

The City of Batavia invites qualified candidates to apply for the position of Director of Public Works. Nestled between Rochester and Buffalo, Batavia is a vibrant city known for its rich history and commitment to community excellence. With a population of approximately 15,500 residents, Batavia offers affordable living, walkable neighborhoods, and numerous local attractions. The city is undergoing significant community improvement efforts, focusing on downtown revitalization, housing quality, and increased community engagement. The Director of Public Works will be pivotal in driving these initiatives forward, overseeing crucial public works projects, and ensuring the city's infrastructure meets the highest standards.

Batavia boasts a welcoming community with ample housing, quality services, and access to natural beauty, including the nearly 10-mile Ellicott Trail. The position offers a competitive salary range of $95,306 - $115,596, along with excellent benefits, including health insurance, generous time off, and participation in the NYS Retirement system. The Director will manage a dedicated team while advancing Batavia's public works and infrastructure projects.
